HUTCHESON'S HOSPITAL AND SCHOOL.

Preceptor—Alexander Osborne
Patrons—The Hon. the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council; three persons to be annually elected by the Merchants' House; three by the Trades' House, with the ministers of the ten Established Churches of Glasgow; and six ministers, to be elected by the patrons, from among the ministers of religion officiating in Glasgow not being ministers of the Established Church, and to hold office during their incumbency; not more than two ministers of any one denomination to be elected to hold office at one time.
Chamberlains and Clerks—Hill, Davidson & Hoggan, 194 Ingram st
Master of Works and Baron Officer—Andrew M'Donald
Rector of Grammar School—Thomas Menzies, F.E.I.S.
Head Master of Girls' School—William Thomson, B.A.
Secretary—F. Lockhart Robertson, D.D.

The funds of the hospital are designed for the aid of citizens of Glasgow, or of persons who, in the estimation of the patrons, may be considered needful and deserving of aid, and who shall have carried on business or trade in Glasgow for some time, and to some extent, on their own account, with credit and reputation, or who shall have been in any way the means of promoting the prosperity of the city, who by misfortune have been reduced in circumstances; and also in favour of the widows and daughters of persons of the above description whose circumstances the patrons may consider may call for such assistance; a preference being given cæteris paribus to persons enrolled as burgesses of Glasgow previously to the 30th January, 1871. Applicants must be fifty years of age; widows having two or more children dependent upon them being eligible at forty years of age. Applicants for admission into the School as foundationers must be the children of persons who would themselves be qualified as pensioners.

LOGAN AND JOHNSTON SCHOOL,
71 Greenhead Street.

Secretary, Treasurer and Matron—Miss Margaret Grant

Founded under the wills of the late William Logan and his spouse, Mrs. Jean Johnston, or Logan, for the education, upbringing, and assisting in life of poor or destitute step-children or orphans of Scottish extraction, those bearing the name of Logan or Johnston always to be preferred. One hundred and twenty girls receive a plain English education, including reading, writing and arithmetic, and also sewing and knitting. Each child receives one suit of clothing and two pairs of shoes and stockings yearly, and is provided with some refreshment in the forenoon of each day when attending school.

QUEEN MARGARET COLLEGE,
Hamilton Drive, Hillhead.

President—H.R.H. Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne

Hon. Treasurers—Chas. Gairdner, Union Bank of Scotland, and Mrs. Campbell Douglas, 236 St. Vincent street (Acting.)
Hon. Secretaries—James Grahame, of Auldhouse, 101 St. Vincent t. and Miss Galloway, Queen Margaret College, Kelvinside (Acting.)
Secretaries for the Correspondence Classes—Miss Jane S. Macarthur, (Honorary Secretary), 4 Buckingham st. Hillhead, and Miss Macgregor (Assistant Secretary.)
Law Agents—Maclay, Murray & Spens, 169 West George st
Auditor—Robert Blyth, C.A. 115 St. Vincent st

Queen Margaret College is as yet the only College for women which exists in Scotland, and is intended to give its students training on the same lines as that given at Girton, Newnham, Holloway, and other women's colleges in England. The buildings now occupied by the College were purchased by Mrs. Elder at the price of £12,000, and have been handed over by her, rent free, with the stipulation that before her gift is crowned by an absolute conveyance the Endowment Fund of the College shall have reached the sum of £20,000, so as to secure a fitting assurance of permanence to the institution in which she has taken such a deep interest. Up to the present date (1889) the endowment fund amounts to £11,580.

BUCHANAN INSTITUTION,
47 Greenhead Street.

DIRECTORS:

From the Town Council—The Hon. The Lord Provost, ex officio, Bailies Waddell, T. J. Martin and H. S. Thomson
From the Merchants' House—The Lord Dean of Guild, ex officio, Sir Michael Connal, J. E. Watson and John Anderson
From the Trades' House—The Deacon-Convener, ex officio, W. Cherry, J. Y. Merry and James Imrie
Governor and Head Master—Rev. William Leggatt
Matron—Miss E. Porteous

Founded on a bequest to the city of Glasgow by the late J. Buchanan, Esq. for the education and industrial training of destitute boys. The pupils reside with their friends at night, but receive three substantial meals daily at the institution. They are taught reading, writing, and arithmetic, besides the elements of navigation, gymnastics, tailoring, shoemaking, and carpentry, to fit them for the navy and army, the merchant and marine service, and as emigrants to the colonies,

LIBRARIES AND READING ROOMS.

THE MITCHELL LIBRARY,
60 Ingram Street.

Librarian—F. T. Barrett
Sub-Librarian—John Ingram

Founded on a Bequest of the late Steven Mitchell, Esq. Mr. Mitchell died in April, 1874, and the bequest was accepted by the Town Council, in July of the same year.

The Library was opened November 1, 1877, and is open daily from 9 30 a.m. to 10 p.m. uninterruptedly. It contains 45,000 volumes. The books are not permitted to be taken away, but may be read in the library, which has been conveniently furnished for this purpose. There is a magazine room, where may be seen more than 180 of the principal weekly, monthly, and quarterly serials, including a number of American, German, and French periodicals. The admission is free, and no introduction or guarantee is required.

The number of readers is large, frequently exceeding the accommodation provided. In 1880 the average number of volumes issued daily was 1,269; in 1881, 1,315, not including the large use made of the periodicals in the magazine room. The total issue during 1881 was 403,713; and from commencement to 31st May, 1882, was 1,548,448.

The Library is administered by a Commtitee of the Town Council.

BAILLIE'S INSTITUTION

Was founded by Mr. George Baillie, writer in Glasgow, who divested himself in his lifetime of his whole fortune (£18,000), which with its accumulations during twenty-one years from 11th November, 1863, he appointed to be applied to the erection and endowment of an Institution in Glasgow, to be called "Baillie's Institution" having for its object (1st) to aid the self culture of the operative classes by means of free public libraries; and (2nd) the instruction of their children in unsectarian schools. The former of these, however, is alone to be proceeded with, unless there is a sufficiency of funds for both. The institution was incorporated by Royal Charter, March 18, 1867. A free library was opened at 48 Miller street on September 29, 1887.
